● Qué mejor lugar para tener juntos a la familia de los Master Europeos en un festival acuático deportivo que la ciudad que anualmente celebra uno de los mejores y más famosos carnavales del mundo.

Cádiz es reconocida por su belleza y por el estupendo humor de sus gentes. La oportunidad de ir y sumergirse dentro de su rica historia y disfrutar de su espíritu y marco privilegiado es ya un gran resultado para todos los competidores y acompañantes.

Hablando de saltos, Sevilla acogerá esta parte de la competición y nos da la posibilidad de volver a la espectacular capital Andaluza 12 años después de la celebración del memorable 23º Campeonato de Europa de Natación en el Complejo Deportivo San Pablo.

Estos campeonatos Master se han transformado en un gran evento en un tiempo relativamente corto. La última edición hace dos años fue el mayor evento deportivo del año 2007 en Europa y esperamos que se alcance una vez más un nuevo récord de participación en esta 12ª edición en el sur de España.

El entusiasmo y la pasión con la que los Masters practican y viven su deporte aseguran una competición excitante. La historia y encanto de ambas ciudades garantizan una más que placentera estancia para los participantes, sus familiares y animadores.

Juventud es el común denominador para estos campeonatos. Teniendo en cuenta la edad, el espíritu siempre enérgico de todos los participantes resulta contagioso y refrescante. Los Masters son un ejemplo de la unión armónica entre el aspecto saludable vital y el divertimento festivo de las actividades deportivas.

Como Presidente de LEN agradezco al Comité Organizador por su trabajo y a la Real Federación Española de Natación, siempre gran compañera, por su apoyo y determinación en la contribución del desarrollo de las actividades acuáticas y el deporte Master en España y Europa.

Os deseo lo mejor a todos.

● What better place to bring together the European Masters family in an aquatic festival of sport than the city that annually hosts one of the World's most famous carnivals.

Cádiz is renowned for its beauty and for the good humour of its people. The opportunity to go there and dive into its rich history and enjoy its spirit and privileged setting is already a great result for all competitors and company. Speaking of diving, Sevilla will host this part of the competition and give us the chance to return to the spectacular Andalusian capital twelve years after the celebration of the memorable 23rd European Swimming Championships at the San Pablo Sport Complex.

These Masters Championships have become a huge event in a relatively short time. The last edition two years ago was the biggest sports event of 2007 in Europe and we hope participation will once again reach a new record at this 12th edition in southern Spain.

The enthusiasm and passion with which Masters practice and live their sports assure an exciting competition. The history and charm of both host cities guarantee a most pleasant stay for the participants, their families, and supporters.

Youth is the common denominator for these championships. Regardless of age, the ever energetic spirit of all participants is contagious and refreshing. Masters are an example of the harmonic communion between a healthy vital outlook and the enjoyment and festivity of sport activities.

As LEN President I thank the Organising Committee for their work and the Royal Spanish Swimming Federation, always great partners, for their support and determination in contributing to the development of Aquatics and Masters sports in Spain and Europe.

All the best to all.

● Andalucía vuelve a ser protagonista de un acontecimiento de magnitud deportiva como es, en esta ocasión, el XII Campeonato de Europa de Natación Master; que se celebrará en Cádiz y Sevilla entre los días 14 y 20 de septiembre, ciudades que siempre han destacado en su labor por el fomento de la práctica deportiva y en concreto de la natación.

Contamos con grandes clubes, importantes competiciones y magníficos deportistas. Andalucía se caracteriza desde hace años por su gran experiencia en materia de organización de eventos deportivos, tanto nacionales como internacionales, en todas las categorías y disciplinas. En esta línea, estoy seguro de que este Campeonato constituirá un nuevo éxito organizativo y deportivo para nuestra Comunidad, lo que hará crecer aún más la confianza que las federaciones internacionales tienen en nuestras capacidades.

Por ello la Junta de Andalucía pondrá cuanto esté de su parte para que en este evento se alcancen las más altas metas organizativas y deportivas y, al mismo tiempo, contribuya a animar a la práctica de la natación entre los jóvenes andaluces.

Desde estas líneas, saludo a cuantos participantes y aficionados llegarán a nuestra tierra y les animo a que también disfruten con las maravillas que ofrecen dos de nuestros mayores destinos turísticos y culturales, la Bahía de Cádiz y Sevilla.

Mi más sincera bienvenida a los deportistas, mi ánimo para que con espíritu deportivo alcancen las metas para las que con esfuerzo y sacrificio se han ido preparando y mi deseo de que este acontecimiento brille con luz propia en el ámbito deportivo, sirva para estrechar los lazos de amistad y para que se lleven un inolvidable recuerdo de nuestra tierra.

Manuel Chaves González

Mrs. Teófila Martínez

● Una vez más nos congratulamos con que la ciudad de Cádiz albergue una competición de un deporte con el que nos sentimos tan vinculados. Cádiz, por méritos propios, por la excelente labor de los clubes de natación y el apoyo de las federaciones de este deporte, ha sido capaz de albergar en los últimos años varios campeonatos de natación de alto nivel. Ahora, la elite de la natación se da cita en Cádiz para participar en el Campeonato de Europa de Natación Master, lo que concitará a miles de nadadores y nadadoras llegados desde todo el continente.

Como alcaldesa, es un orgullo recibir hoy a estos deportistas, a sus equipos y clubes, a sus entrenadores... En estos días estoy segura que los gaditanos y gaditanas van a volcarse en este evento de magnitud, ofreciendo lo mejor de esta ciudad: su carácter, su alegría y su sonrisa. Cádiz tiene mucho que ofrecer: gastronomía, historia, playas...

Las instalaciones del Complejo Deportivo Ciudad de Cádiz están a disposición de este campeonato y de sus participantes. Para nosotros es una satisfacción que se haya vuelto a confiar en nosotros para albergar este evento deportivo que es una muestra de la superación deportiva, y de la competitividad sana. Por ello, espero de todo corazón que, durante estos días, disfrutéis de vuestra estancia en una ciudad abierta y cálida, que os recibe con los brazos abiertos y que espera que os sintáis como en casa.

● Once again we have to congratulate ourselves that the City of Cadiz can hold a competition of a sport from which we feel very much entailed. Cadiz, with its own merits, with the excellent work of the swimming clubs and the help of federations of this sport, it has been able to hold, during the pasted years, several swimming championships of high level. Now, the elite of swimming have an appointment in Cadiz to participate in the "European Master Swimming Championships 2009", which will bring thousands of swimmers from the whole continent.

As the Mayor of Cadiz, I am proud to welcome these swimmers, its teams and clubs, and its coaches. I am certain that during that time the people of Cadiz are going to offer the best of this town: its character, happiness and smile. Cadiz has a lot to offer: Gastronomy, History, Beaches.....

The installations of the Sports Complex "Ciudad de Cadiz" are at the disposition of this Championships, and its participants. It is a real satisfaction for us to have been trusted again to hold this sports event, which make us believe in our sporting overcome, and our competitive and friendly ways. For all that I hope deep in my hart that during those days you can enjoy your stay in this warm and open City that will welcome you with its open arms to make you all feel like at home.

AYUNTAMIENTO DE SEVILLA

Mr. Alfredo Sánchez

Major of Sevilla

● Sevilla se ofrece complacida como el escenario en el que durante los días 15 a 18 de Septiembre, sea el marco de la competición de saltos en el Campeonato de Europa Master de Natación a celebrar conjuntamente con la ciudad de Cádiz y rinda los frutos esperados por parte de los admirados y esforzados deportistas.

La nuestra es una ciudad para el deporte, que ha hecho de la práctica deportiva en todos sus niveles una seña de identidad. Nuestra ciudad, por su tradición e instalaciones deportivas, por su atractivo turístico e inversor en nueva economía y por su clima, opta en su modelo de futuro por el desarrollo del deporte en todas su facetas y, muy en especial, como factor de vida saludable y convivencia ciudadana.

Sevilla como organizadora de grandes eventos deportivos, cuenta con un nombre, un prestigio y una trayectoria que eventos deportivos como el que se va a desarrollar en esos días, en nuestras instalaciones de San Pablo, sin duda alguna, reafirmarán dicha trayectoria. Los eventos deportivos de alcance nacional o internacional generan un elevado impacto en las ciudades en que se realizan, tanto en términos de dotación de instalaciones, como en repercusión económica y social y de imagen exterior de la ciudad. Y nosotros en materia de alta competición, hemos demostrado que estamos a la altura.

Nuestra ciudad renueva permanentemente su compromiso con el deporte, estamos convencidos de que el Deporte es un bien social de primera magnitud, de que la práctica del deporte favorece la diversión y el placer individual... pero también la salud, la convivencia; el bienestar de los ciudadanos, la economía y el empleo.

Sean bienvenidos a Sevilla. Espero que su estancia entre nosotros servirá también para descubrirles una ciudad en la que la palabra hospitalidad tiene auténtico sentido. Pero es necesario que les advierta una cosa: es muy posible que aquellos de ustedes que no formen parte ya de la legión de profundos enamorados que nuestra ciudad tiene en todas partes de la tierra, caigan en breve presa de este dulce cautiverio y, a buen seguro, regresen siempre a Sevilla.

Mr. Fernando Carpena
RFEN President

● Con gran satisfacción, como presidente de la Real Federación Española de Natación, quiero daros la bienvenida a esos XII Campeonatos de Europa Masters, que la Liga Europea de Natación (LEN) concedió en su día a nuestra RFEN, y que la Federación Andaluza organizará los próximos días 15 a 20 de septiembre de 2009, en dos sedes de aquella Comunidad Autónoma, Cádiz y Sevilla.

El movimiento master sigue ganando en importancia, social y deportiva, por lo que la participación a nivel continental será excepcional, a buen seguro, y en línea con la masiva inscripción que ya venimos registrando en nuestros propios Campeonatos de España..., incluso con bastantes más deportistas al sumarse a las habituales pruebas de natación, las de saltos, natación sincronizada y aguas abiertas.

La amplia experiencia de la Federación Andaluza en la organización de eventos internacionales es evidente y, con la colaboración de esta RFEN, el Consejo Superior de Deportes, la Consejería de de Turismo, Comercio y Deportes de la Junta de Andalucía y los Excelentísimos Ayuntamientos de Cádiz y Sevilla, estamos seguros de que estos XII Campeonatos Europeos Masters serán modélicos en cuanto a instalaciones y organización.

Nuestro agradecimiento desde la RFEN a las colaboraciones institucionales antes mencionadas, sin cuya decidida ayuda no sería posible alcanzar todas las metas programadas. Estamos seguros de que los gaditanos Complejo Municipal "Ciudad de Cádiz" (natación y sincronizada) y el Centro Náutico "Elcano" (aguas abiertas), y el sevillano Ciudad Deportiva "San Pablo" (saltos) serán escenarios deslumbrantes en esta cita europea del próximo septiembre..., para realce de la natación continental y una nueva confirmación de las virtudes organizativas de la NATACIÓN ESPAÑOLA.

● With great satisfaction as president of the Royal Spanish Swimming Federation, I want welcome all of you to this XII European Master Championships, that LEN grant to RFEN and Andalusian Federation will organize the next 15th to 20th September 2009 to be held in two cities of the Regional community, Cádiz and Seville.

The Master movement are winning in importance, social and sport, so the participation as continental level will be exceptional, for sure, and in the way with the massive entries that we usually have in our Spanish Championships..., even more masters because of the diving, synchronised swimming and open water events.

The large experience of the Andalusian Swimming Federation to organize international events is evident and, with the support of the Royal Spanish Swimming Federation (RFEN), Sport National Council (CSD), Tourism, Commerce and Sport of Andalusia government, and the city council of Cádiz and Seville, for sure this XII European Master Championships will be a model as facilities and organization.

Our gratitude from the RFEN to the institutional collaborations before mentioned, without determined help will be not possible to reach all the programme objectives. For sure the facilities from Cádiz, Municipal Complex "City of Cádiz" (swimming and synchronised swimming) and Nautic Centre "Elcano" (open water); and from Seville, Sport City "San Pablo" (diving) will be dazzling stages for this European appointment next September..., for splendour of the continental swimming and a new confirmation of the organization virtues of the SPANISH SWIMMING.

HISTORIA

La provincia de Cádiz es la más meridional de la Península Ibérica. Tiene un perímetro de 586 kms. de los que 260 corresponden a la costa. Su superficie es de 7.385 kms repartidos en sus 44 municipios. Su población supera ligeramente el millón de habitantes, dando una densidad por encima de la media nacional.

Su Historia es antiquísima. Tartessos y fenicios visitaron estas tierras hace más de 3.000 años, y en un punto de este territorio levantaron la antigua Gadir, que se sitúa a unos 1.100 años a. de C., convirtiendo a la capital de la provincia en la más antigua de Occidente. Los romanos y visigodos también dejaron sus huellas y a partir del año 711 fue territorio musulmán. Alfonso X El Sabio la reconquistó en la segunda mitad del siglo XIII para el Reino de Castilla.

Desde esta provincia se contribuyó notablemente al descubrimiento y colonización de América durante el s.XV. Cristóbal Colón y otros ilustres marinos utilizaron sus puertos como punto de partida hacia el Nuevo Continente. En el s.XVIII, "siglo de Oro" de Cádiz, se monopoliza el comercio de ultramar, lo que le imprime un carácter cosmopolita, penetrando nuevas ideas que dieron lugar a la apertura liberal y democrática recogida en la Constitución de 1812.

Cádiz, privilegiada y singular, reúne todos los atractivos que puedan apetecer quienes valoran el turismo en su verdadera dimensión cultural y festiva, ecológica y monumental, costumbrista, auténtica y esencialmente andaluza.

HISTORY

The province of Cadiz is the southernmost of the Iberian Peninsula . It has a perimeter of 586 Km, 260 of which are coastline. It has a surface area of 7,385 Km, divided up into 44 municipal areas. Its population totals just over one million.

Cadiz has an ancient history. The Tarshish and Phoenicians visited these lands more than three thousand years ago. It was here that they built the old Gadir around 1,100 B.C., making it the oldest capital in the West. The Romans and the Visigoths also left their marks here. After 711, it was ruled by the Muslims until Alfonso X "The Wise" reconquered it in the middle of the 13th century for the Kingdom of Castilla.

The province played an important role in the discovery and colonization of America during the 15th century. Christopher Columbus and other famous sailors set sail from these ports on their voyages to the New Continent. The 18th century, Cadiz's "Golden Century" was dominated by the growth of overseas trade, giving the city its cosmopolitan character and introducing new liberal ideas and opening the door for democracy which came to fruition with the drafting of the constitution in 1812.

The province of Cadiz is exceptional and unique area, whose qualities will delight those people seeking tourism that reflects true cultural, festive and ecological values, together with the authentic and essentially Andalusian customs and monuments.

HISTORIA

Muchas y diferentes culturas han estado presentes en la historia de Sevilla. Su legado ha conformado a lo largo de siglos el patrimonio cultural, monumental y artístico que podemos admirar en sus calles y en sus museos. Los oscuros orígenes han dado lugar a las leyendas que atribuyen a Hércules la fundación de Sevilla. En el Museo Arqueológico encontraremos los vestigios de los pueblos del otro lado del Mediterráneo, la representación de sus dioses lejanos y el Tesoro del Carambolo muestra de la influencia oriental asimilada por aquellos primitivos "sevillanos".

Sevilla ha sido tierra de cartagineses, romanos, musulmanes, almohades y castellanos. Será en el siglo XVI cuando Sevilla, tras el Descubrimiento de América, se convierta en el Puerto de Indias que monopolice el comercio con el Nuevo Continente. El siglo XVII alumbrará figuras artísticas universales y las Hermandades de Pasión que sacaban sus imágenes desordenadamente a la calle, son reglamentadas creándose la Carrera Oficial: el itinerario obligado para todas ellas por donde debían desfilan en un orden determinado por la antigüedad. Se está creando la Semana Santa que unida a la profunda religiosidad da lugar a figuras como Montañés, Murillo, Zurbarán y Valdés Leal, cuyas obras encontramos en el Museo de Bellas Artes y repartidos por diversas parroquias.

HISTORY

Numerous and varied cultures have been present in Seville's history. The city's cultural, monumental and artistic legacy gained over the centuries can be admired in its streets and museums. Seville's dark origins have provided legends such as the one that attributes Hercules as its founder. In order to appreciate the ancient history of Seville, one must visit the Museo Arqueológico (Archaeological Museum), a spectacular site in itself; once a Pavilion of the 1929 Exhibition. Here one can observe the remains of cultures that traveled from across the Mediterranean, bringing with them their distant gods. The Tesoro del Carambolo is a clear example of oriental influences assimilated by the ancient peoples of Seville.

Carthaginians, romans, muslims, almohades and castiles lived here and left its customs and way of life. After the discovery of America, 16th C Seville became the Puerto de las Indias, monopolizing trade with the New Continent. The 17th C brought in illustrious and universal artists. The Holy Week Brotherhoods, which has traditionally paraded without any order were soon organized under the Official Route body. The float's itinerary was coordinated according to seniority; Holy Week was becoming formalized and its profound religiousness was represented in works of artists such as, Montañés, Murillo, Zurbarán and Valdés Leal. Their works can be found today in the Museo de Bellas Artes (Fine Arts Museum) as well as in various city parishes.
